DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group II (claims 28-80) in the reply filed on 6/25/07 is acknowledged.

Claims 28-54 have been canceled in the amendment filed 6/25/07.

Upon further consideration, it was determined that a further restriction of the claims is required.

A restriction on all the pending claims 1-27, 55-80, follows.

Election/Restriction

2. This application is a 371 of PCT/JP04/06211. For applications filed under 371, PCT rules for lack of unity apply.
3. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I. Claims 1-27, are drawn to a pharmaceutical composition comprising an IL-6 receptor antibody.

Group II. Claims 55-56, 58, 60-80, are drawn to a method of treating an IL-6 related disease by administering an IL-6 receptor antibody.

Group II. Claims 57, 59, are drawn to a method of preventing an IL-6 related disease by administering an IL-6 receptor antibody.

Claim 56 recite "a use" which has been interpreted by the Examiner as "a method". It is suggested that the "use" claim be amended by Applicants to properly recite "a method of treatment".

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because under PCT Rule 13.2 they lack the same or corresponding special technical feature for the following reasons:

The PCT rules define a special technical feature as a feature, which defines a contribution over the prior art. The first claimed invention fails to recite such a feature, since U.S. Patent No. 5,888,510 discloses an IL-6 receptor antibody (columns 13-14, Example 2; claims 1-11; Figure 5). Since the first claimed invention lacks a special technical feature, the other claimed inventions cannot share a special technical feature with the first claimed invention. The invention of Groups II-III are patentably distinct from the product of Group I because the product of Group I can also be used in immunoaffinity chromatography.

Inventions II-III are independent and distinct, each from the other, because the methods are practiced with materially different process steps for materially different purposes and each method requires a non-coextensive search because of different starting materials, process steps and goals. For example, in Groups II-III, the only feature in common in the instant inventions is "the method of treating IL-6 related disease" (Group II) or "the method of preventing IL-6 related disease" (Group III), which does not constitute the special technical feature lacking from the prior art because these methods can be used with a composition other than the instant products such as glucocorticoids. Furthermore, separate search terms would be required for searching the literature, eg. a search of the literature for an association of treating IL-6 related disease would not necessarily reveal art for an association of preventing IL-6 related disease.

4. Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 C.F.R. 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. 1.17(h).

Rejoinder under In re Ochiai and In re Brouwer

5. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

Art Unit: 1646

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Species election

6. Claim 68, is generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species of IL-6 related diseases. If Group II is elected, Applicants are required to elect one of the following species of diseases selected from:

- (1) the various disparate species of diseases set forth in claim 68.

Art Unit: 1646

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 55-56, 58, 60-67, 69-80, are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
